Help is needed for volunteers to be on duty in the Sanctuary during the Festival. The rota sheet is in the Main Hall. If you can help, this would be much appreciated. Each 'shift' lasts 2 hours. Contact Anne Middleton (867334) for more information. Background live music is also provided during the Festival. If you are willing to play an instrument, please do add your name to the rota-also in the Main Hall.

Food collection.

During Advent, both Tesco and Sainsbury's in Cults have their own boxes for donations of food, clothing etc. As far as we know, donations in these boxes will still go to local foodbanks, so do please use them; or continue to bring your donations to church or the Kirk Centre.

Cults Parish Church is taking part in the Christian Aid Christmas campaign "Enough for Everyone" which is focussing on Burkino Faso and South Sudan. The aim is to provide people with tools and seeds to grow their own food in local market gardens. The money raised by the choir carol singing at Drum on Saturdays 2nd and 9th December plus the coffee money on the 3rd and 10th will go to the campaign. The UK government will double all the money raised.

It would be appreciated if Elders who removed their folders when they collected their magazines returned them to the Church or the Church office. Thank you.

Tickets for the Hogmanay Ceilidh are available from Maureen Taylor-01224 861377 or e-mail maureen.ag@btinternet.com Adults £10.00. Children £3.00.
